

CMI Level 7 Strategic Management & Leadership in Operational Delivery Certificate, Diploma

This externally recognised management and leadership qualification is equivalent to Masters Degrees, Post-graduate Certificates and Diplomas.

Description

The Operational Delivery Profession has worked with the Chartered Management Institute (CMI) to develop qualifications which will help to support continued professional development in Leadership and Management. With these qualifications learners can choose whether to take a Certificate or a Diploma.

What's the outcome?

By completing the Level 7 Certificate or Diploma in Strategic Management and Leadership in Operational Delivery you will have an internationally and externally recognised qualification in management and leadership that is equivalent level to a Masters Degree.

The knowledge you gain will depend upon the optional units which can be selected based upon your requirements.

You may wish to find out more by accessing further information here Operational Delivery Profession Qualifications.

What does it involve?

Learners accessing either the Certificate or Diploma would undertake a combination of optional units with examples including: Personal development as a strategic leader; developing performance management strategies; strategic information management; strategic planning; and strategic leadership practice.

Each available unit has a number of associated credits and the different requirements for the Certificate and Diploma are as follows:

- The Certificate takes up to 12 months to complete and requires completion of a combination of units with a minimum 13 credits meeting the assessment criteria.
- The Diploma takes up to 18 months to complete and requires completion of a combination of units with a minimum of 39 credits meeting the assessment criteria.
