

Interview Practice

Being interviewed in the senior Civil Service brings new challenges. This session will focus on helping you to present yourself in the best possible light.

Description

The session enhances your interview techniques, personal impact and presentation skills used at senior job interviews. It also provides a platform to plan for future interviews within the Civil Service and beyond and to hone interviewing techniques.

What does it involve?

This is a hands-on session that offers the possibility to practice a range of different interview techniques.

The workshop is for the SCS, Grade 6 or Grade 7 civil servants who are looking to move posts within the Civil Service or beyond.

Those interested in this learning may also be interested in the Storytelling topic.

What's the outcome?

When you have completed this workshop you will have greater clarity on what you have to offer senior hiring managers. You will understand how to optimise your presence and impact at senior interviews. You will also understand how to convey your key messages and demonstrate transferable skills.
